The order of the readings in the critical apparatus is arranged according to the quality of readings in decending order.

1.2 Punctuation

The very inconsistent use of punctuation marks in the witnesses at hand makes standardization necessary. Deviation of punctuation marks will not be documented in the critical apparatus. The usual standard conventions are followed:

Especially in the verse poetry, a daṇḍa marks the end of a half verse, half of the śloka, and the double daṇḍa marks the end of a verse. A half verse is a pāda, at least in some literary works, this is concluded by a daṇḍa and the end of a śloka by a double daṇḍa. In the prose the single daṇḍa indicates the end of a sentence and the double daṇḍa marks the end of a paragraph.

1.3 Sandhi

Among the witnesses we see deviating and inconsistent application of sandhi. There is no clear evidence that originally sandhi was intentionally not applied. This edition will therefore apply sandhi consistently throughout the constituted text to provide a readable text sticking to contemporary conventions in Sanskrit. To simplify the apparatus the variant readings concerning sandhi are not recorded to the most part. Exceptions are made in remarkable cases.

1.4 Class Nasals

Again, due to inconsistent use of class nasals among the witnesses anusvāras have been substituted with the respective class nasals throughout the critical edition. To simplify the apparatus deviating usage of class nasals is not documented in the apparatus.

20 rājayoga: The initial codification of 15 yogas appears in N₁,P,D₁,U₁ and U₂. It is omitted in E and L. B can't be determined due to missing folios. P is the only witness which numbers the yogas with devanāgarī-digits. I decided to include the numeration to improve the readability of the list. The other witnesses separate the list with single or double danḍas.

[Introduction]

Homage to Śrī Gaṇeśa. Now the methods of rājayoga are laid down. This is the result of *rājayoga*¹: Rājayoga is that by which longterm durability of the body arises even amongst manifold royal pleasures even amongst the manifold royal entertainments and spectacle. This truly is rājayoga. Of this [rājayoga] these are the varieties:

1. Yoga of [mental] action (kriyāyoga),
2. Yoga of knowledge (jñānayoga),
3. Yoga of wandering (caryāyoga),
4. Yoga of force (haṭhayoga),
5. Yoga of deeds (karmayoga),
6. Yoga of absorption (layayoga),
7. Yoga of meditation (dhyānayoga),
8. Yoga of mantras (mantrayoga),
9. Yoga of fixation objects (lakṣyayoga),
10. Yoga of mental residues (vāsanāyoga),
11. Yoga of Śiva (śivayoga),
12. Yoga of Brahman (brahmayoga),
13. Yoga of non-duality (advaitayoga),
14. Yoga of completion (siddhayoga),
15. Yoga of kings (rājayoga).

These are the fifteen yogas.²

¹This statement seems unconnected to the definition of rājayoga that follows.

²At the current stage of research it is not clear if this list is a later addition by another scribe or, if indeed it originally stems from Rāmacandra. The list suggests a text following the order of yogas according to this list. However, the order and even the designation of some of the yogas given in the list is just followed very loosely in the text.

[Description of kriyāyoga]

Now the characteristic of the Yoga of [mental] action (kriyāyoga) described.

1. This Yoga is liberation through [mental] action. It bestows success(siddhi) in ones own body. Each wave the mind creates at the beginning of an action, of all those one shall withdraw oneself. Then kriyāyoga arises.
2. Patience, discrimination, equanimity, peace, modesty, desireless: The yogī who is endowed with these means is said to be a kriyāyogī.
3. Envy, selfishness, cheating, violence, desire and intoxication, pride, lust, anger, fear, laziness, greed, error and impurity.
4. Attachment and aversion, indignation and idleness, impatience and dizziness: Whoever does not possess these is called a kriyāyogī.³

³The source of the four verses seems to be unknown. It is possible that they stem from Rāmacandra himself.

4 rāgo dveṣaḥ: I conjectured to rāgo dveṣaḥ to provide a sentence with correct grammar. Another possible conjecture would be to read rāgadveṣau.

Patience, discrimination, equanimity, peace, contentment etc. are generated in his mind. He alone is called a yogī of many actions (bahukriyāyogī)⁴.

Fraud, illusion, property, violence, craving, envy, ego, anger, anxiety, shame, greed, error, impurity, attachment, aversion, idleness, heterodoxy, false view, affection of the senses, sexual desire: He who diminishes these from day to day in his mind, he alone is called a yogī of many actions (bahukriyāyogī).

⁴The term bahukriyāyogī seems to be unique in the whole yoga literature.

1 kathyante: The whole sentence is omitted in in U₁. mantrayogaḥ: The sudden appearance of mantrayoga seems very odd. Especially considering that this section of the text doesn't mention the practice of mantra at all. It might be a mistake, or a later insertion. However, the most reliable witnesses preserve this reading except of L.

[Varieties of rājāyoga: Siddhakuṇḍalinīyoga and Mantrayoga]

Now varieties of rājāyoga will be described. Which are these? One is siddhakuṇḍalinīyoga [and one] is mantrayoga. These two rājāyogas are described [in the following]. At the location of the root-bulb exists one major vessel in the form of energy. This single vessel splits up into these openings which are iḍā, piṅgalā and suṣumnā.

On the left side is the iḍā-channel, being a resemblance of the moon. On the right side exists the piṅgalā-channel, being a resemblance of the sun. Within the middle path is a lotuspond being very subtle. [It is] made from a web of light [and it] shines like a thousand lightnings.

She emerges as the central channel, assuming the form of benevolence (śiva), is the bestower of enjoyment and liberation. While abiding in (satyām) her (asyām) knowledge arises [to the point of which] the person becomes all-knowing. The means for the genesis of knowledge in the central channel will now be described.⁵

⁵It is not clear if the list given at the beginning of the text codifying the fifteen yogas belongs to the original text or was a later addition by another hand. One primary reason for this suspicion is that the structure of the yogas in the text does not equal the list. The text begins with a description of kriyāyoga and continues to describe siddhakuṇḍalinīyoga and somewhat surprisingly mentions mantrayoga in the same breath. One starts wondering why the structure of the text does not follow the codification. However the mention of jñānotpattau upāyaḥ might be a clue why the second yoga in the list might be jñānayoga. So far it seems to me that there are three options or a combination of these to explain these apparent inconsistencies: 1. The text is highly corrupted. 2. The codification was a later addition of another hand. 3. The term jñānayoga is listed due to the results of siddhakuṇḍalinīyoga, which is the generation of knowledge due to the practice of a certain yoga involving the central channel, as mentioned in this section of the text.

At the beginning [of the central channel?] exists the root-cakra having four petals. The first cakra of support (ādhāra) is at the anus, [it] is red-colored, [it] has Gaṇeśa as its deity, [he] is success, intelligence and power, [and has] a rat as [his] mount, the Ṛṣi [of it] is Kūrma, [its seal] is the seal of contraction (ākuñcanamudrā), [its] vitalwind is apāna, [its] kalā is umīr, its dhāraṇā is ojasvinī in the four petals [of it resides] rajas, sattva, tamas and the mind-faculties (manāṃsī) [symbolized by the syllables] “vaṃ”, “śaṃ”, “ṣaṃ” and “saṃ”, in the middle [of it] is a triangle. In the middle is a trident, and kāmapīṭha in the shape of a triangle. In the middle of this seat (pīṭha) exists a single form having the shape of a flame. Trough the practice of meditation on this form the whole literature, all śāstras, all poems, dramas etc., everything [related to] elocution, appears in the mind of the person without [prior] learning. [Assigned to it] is external bliss, yogic bliss, heroic bliss [and] the bliss of coming to rest.⁶⁷

Now the second [will be described]. The svādhiṣṭhānacakra having six petals is known as the seat of uddīyāṇa. [It is] located at the gender, [its] yellow in color, [its] shine is yellow, [it is assigned to the] rajas-quality, [its] god is Brahmā, the divinity of speech (vaikharīvāca) [is presiding over it], [its] power is Sāvitrī, [its] mount is the goose, [its] Ṛṣi is Vahana, [it has] the shine of desire, [it belongs to] the gross body, [it is assigned to] the waking state, the Ṛgveda, the guruliṅga, the liberation of the world of Brahma, the pure land?, [it is] in the range of smell, [its] vitalwind is apāna. [Its] inner measure: [endowed with the syllables] vaṃ bhaṃ maṃ yaṃ raṃ laṃ. [Its] outer measure: desire, kāmākhyā, the twofold glow?, ceṣṭrikā?, laziness [and] copulation. In its middle exists extremely red glow. The adept becomes very handsome through meditation on it. The vital force increases from day to day.

⁶It is very strange that only the first cakra adds a detailed description of mounts, Ṛṣis, gods, seals and so forth among the current majority of witnesses at hand: E, P, L and U₂. All other descriptions of the remaining eight cakras leave this out. The only exception is U₂, a relatively late witness that adds those descriptions for the other cakras as well. Since it is probable that those descriptions are later additions to the text and the witnesses are partially quite conflated, I think this is very interesting for the history of this text, they are added to the edition as well as the translation and are highlighted in color.

[Description of the third Cakra]

The third, a lotus with ten petals exists at the location of the navel. [It is] monkey-colored, [has] Viṣṇu as its god, Lakṣmi [as its] power, Vāyu [as its] Ṛṣi, Samāna [as its] vitalwind, [its] mount is Garuḍa, [it belongs to] the subtle body, [it is assigned] to the sleeping-state, the inaudible speech (madhyamāvāg), the Yajurveda, the fire of Dakṣiṇa, the liberation of Samipatā⁸, Viṣṇu's Guruliṅga, the Tattva [of it is] water, [being in] the range of Rajas. It has ten parts [and] ten measures⁹. [The] inner measure: ḍaṃ ṭaṃ ṇaṃ taṃ thaṃ daṃ dhaṃ naṃ paṃ phaṃ. External measure: peace, patience, insight, tanyā?, a leared teacher, the lotus, ahaṃsagamanā?, an object aimed at, absorbed in and immortality. In its middle exists a cakra with five angles. In its middle is a single (divine) form. It is not possible to describe her shine with speech (lit. with the tongue). Through the execution of meditation on this (divine) form the body of the person is going to be strong.

[Description of the fourth Cakra]

The fourth lotus having twelve-petals exists in the middle at the heart. [The] Anāhatacakra is placed in the heart. [It is] white in color, has the quality of tamas, [its] deity is Rudra, [its] power is Umā, [its] Ṛṣi is Hiraṇyagarbha, [its] mount is Nandi, [its] vitalwind is Prāṇa, in the body it is the light that causes fragmentation? (kalākarāṇa), [its] state is deep sleep, [its] speech is *paśyantī*¹⁰, [it is attributed to the] Sāmaveda, the fire of the house, Śivaliṅgam, the ability to attach everything on the earth [and] the uniform liberation. [It has] twelve petals, [associated with] twelve measures, [having the syllables] kaṃ khaṃ gaṃ ghaṃ ṇaṃ caṃ chaṃ jaṃ jhaṃ yaṃ taṃ [and] thaṃ. [Its] external measure [is]: Rudras wife, light (tejasā?), glow, sphakadā?, consciousness (caitanya), bestower of Śiva, peace, Umā, Gaurī, Mātara, the flame [and] Prajvālinī. Due to being made of [such an] intense light [the fourth lotus] is not in the range of sight. In its middle exists a lotus facing downward having eight petals.

⁸The second type of liberation. Additional information will be added in the near future

⁹What kind of measures?

The mind resides in this cakra, [the] god [presiding over it] is the mind [itself], [its] power is Bhai, [its] Ṛṣi is the self. In the middle of the navel [exists] a place, being a lotus, its tube measures ten aṅgulas, the water [being in] the tube is pure and facing upwards. In its middle is the location of a shining banana-flower. The mind is intended to rise upwards?. [There are] several options to arise in oneself. If the mind takes rest in the eastern petal [which is] while in color the natural law, fame, knowledge etc. [and] a clear intellect arises. [If the mind rests] in south-east, [which is] reddish in color, sleep, laziness, illusion and a weak mind arises. [If it rests] on the right south, [which is] black in color then anger is generated. [If it rests] in the southwest, [which is] blue in color a mind that is selfish arises. [If it rests] in the west, [which is] brown in color, a mind of playfulness, laughing, and party-mood arises. [If it rests] in the northwest, [which is] dark in color, a mind of restless thought arises. [If it rests] in the north, [which is] yellow in color, a mind of great happiness, erotic and enjoyment arises. [If it rests] in north-east [which is] whitish in color a mind endowed with unified knowledge arises. It is said that in its middle is the place of the prāṇa-vitalwind [and] in the middle [of] the eight-petalled lotus is a pericarp (karṇikā) in the form of a liṅga. The technical designation of her is kalikā. In the middle of this kalikā exists a single thumbsized [divine] figurine (puttalikā) being similiar to a ruby-gem in color. Her technical designation is embodied soul (jīva). Not even with a thousand tongues it is possible to talk about her nature and her power. “Because of the exercise of meditation on this form the inhabitants of the universe [which are] humans, gandharvas, kinnaras, guhyakas, vidyādhara and [their] females, in the heavenly world, underworld and open space are obedient to the will of the practicing person.”, is said here.

[Description of the seventh Cakra]

Now the seventh cakra having 64 petals and being full of nectar exists in the middle of the palate. Circle on the forehead, [its] god [is] the moon, [its] power [is] the nectar of immortality, [its] Rṣi is the supreme self, seventeen parts with the scent of nectar, sounding like a wave of immortality, [it is attributed to] the great space, the mother, the uvula, a small bell, having the nature of the body of the unspeakable Gayatrī, [having] the face of a crow, Mann-Auge-Kuh-Horn-Stirn-Brahmapaṭhā-Viṣṇu, [having] the face of a peacock, [having] limbs like a goose, [having] the nature of the unspeakable Gayatrī. [It is] endowed with superabundant beauty. [It is] very bright. In its middle, red in color [is that] known as "uvula" (ghāṃṭikā). [It] exists as a single pericarp. In its middle is a [certain] site. In the middle of it exists a flow of nectar like a river (amṛtādhārāsravantī), appearing from the digits of the moons disc. Because of the exercise of meditation on this digit death does not come near him. Due to uninterrupted meditation the stream (dhārā) of nectar flows. Then the appearances of emaciation (kṣayaroga), fever due to disordered bile (pittajvara), heartburn (hṛdayadāha), head-disease (śīroroga) and tongue insensibility (jihvājaḍa) vanish. Also eaten venom doesn't trouble him. If here the mind becomes stable.
